

Yes, Your Honours. In contact with my lawyers, on several occasions, they explained this to me in detail and what the consequences of this may be. At any expense, I decided to admit these crimes, and I know that even life imprisonment may follow, but never mind. It is up to you to decide on my sentence after the trial, and I decided to admit.

However,
Mr. Jelusic decided to reveal his soul, as he said himself to this Honourable Trial Chamber, to simply cleanse his soul and to sincerely repent for what he has done.
